STIR AMONG ATHLETES.

Mr. Oyster Will Appoint Committee to Decide MacDonald Case.

The action of Mr. James F. Oyster, president of the board of education, in accepting the appeal of Cy MacDonald, captain of Central High School football eleven, from the decision of the board of faculty athletic advisers, which debarred MacDonald from further participation in athletics in the high schools for alleged professionalization, created quite a stir in local athletic circles yesterday.

Young MacDonald's course in seeking vindication was commended by his many friends, who believe that the young man should not sacrifice his amateur athletic standing for the sake of a few dollars by playing baseball with a professional team.

President Oyster intends that MacDonald shall have an impartial hearing, and with that end in view he will appoint a committee of disinterested persons to act upon the case. Mr. Oyster had not selected this committee yet when asked yesterday what would be done in the matter, but he said that no member of the board of education or any one connected with the public schools would be named on the committee.

After the committee is selected it is thought that MacDonald's eligibility will be determined in a few days, for officials from MacDonald and his father, and the manager of the Winchester baseball club, will likely be deemed sufficient to decide the case.

SHERIDAN SEEKS HONOR.

Hero of Olympic Games Will Try to Win Nine Championships.

New York, Nov. 1.—Martin J. Sheridan, the world's champion discus thrower and hero of the Olympic games at Athens, has been entered for the Amateur Athletic Union inter-collegiate championships to be held on November 9 and 10 at Madison Square Garden, and as Martin will take part in no fewer than nine events it looks as if he is trying to duplicate his performance in the Greek games—that of scoring the greatest number of points during the meet.

The events in which he will compete are as follows: November 9, pole vault for distance, standing broad jump, hop, step and jump, putting eight-pound shot, and throwing fifty-six-pound weight for height; November 10, putting twenty-four-pound shot, standing eight-pound shot, standing jumps, pole vault for height. In each of these events Sheridan will most likely add to the point score of his club, as he is without doubt the greatest all-around athlete of the present day.

SECOND ROUND IN GOLF.

Chey Chase Players in Competition for Stames Cup.

Chey Chase golfers had splendid weather for their second round yesterday in the competition for the Stames Cup on the club's links. Mr. McCammon is the most likely winner among the survivors in the eight matches, and as he has Mr. Tuckerman as his opponent in today's round, there is sure to be a good contest, for the latter rather easily disposed of Mr. King yesterday, and he rates among the best of those who are still in the competition. Two of the matches were won by default, Mr. Newbold and Mr. Freyhold finding it impossible to play the round.

The results of yesterday's matches follow: H. B. Davidson beat F. H. Ellis, 3 and 1; S. P. Knut beat W. J. Pettus, 4 and 2; J. E. McLeran won from T. R. Newbold by default; S. L. Heap won from F. Freyhold by default; A. Britton beat Mr. Junken, 6 and 5; L. B. T. Johnson beat H. W. Smith, 3 and 2; O. McCammon beat E. H. Loftus, 5 and 2; W. R. Tuckerman beat A. T. King, 6 and 4.

The pairs for to-day are: Mr. Davidson vs. Mr. Knut; Mr. McLeran vs. Mr. Heap; Mr. Britton vs. Mr. Johnson; Mr. McCammon vs. Mr. Tuckerman.

Glidden Off on Long Tour.

Boston, Nov. 1.—Charles Glidden started to-day on an automobile tour through the South Atlantic States and Mexico. At Washington he will call on the President, and carry to Mexico a letter of greeting from President Roosevelt to President Diaz. His wife and a friend accompany him. From Mexico the tour will continue to other countries, but the itinerary is not yet decided.

Eastern A. C. Meets Onwards.

The Eastern A. C. and the O'Learys of the Greater Washington League, will meet to-night in the W. L. I. Hall. The Eastern A. C. have had good hard practice since their last game and will put up a strong game against the O'Learys. There will be music and dancing after the game.

LOTUS EATER'S PURSE

Bobbie Kean Badly Beaten at Pimlico Opening.

WEIGHT STOPPED GRAZIALLO

The Clown Made Favorite Over the Washington Horse, Who Could Not Handle the Added Ten Pounds—Successful Beginning of the Racing Season at Baltimore—Other Results.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 1.—The fall meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club opened at Pimlico this afternoon with the best class of horses contesting since the old course in many years. The weather was somewhat chilly, and a strong wind was blowing, but a large crowd was on hand, many Washingtonians being seen in the throngs.

Twenty-nine books weighed in, and all did a thriving business. The improvement in the quality of racing offered is shown by the better class of jockeys riding and the excellent starting by Mr. Dale. All the send-offs were prompt and good. This end of the sport was so much better than at previous meetings that it is sure to attract larger crowds. Mr. Dale's work was almost perfect.

The track was holding, but scratches were few, and while none of the events furnished very close finishes, the racing was good, and from a betting standpoint the public could not have asked more. All the winners were well played, four actual favorites getting home in front, while the other two events went to well-played second choices.

Lotus Eater Topples Field.

The programme feature of the afternoon was the Hotel Kerman Purse, at a mile and seventy yards, for which Bobbie Kean was made a hot favorite. Lotus Eater, running in the "half" section of the Messers, John, The Granger, and Noney also ran.

Morris, however, was too rapid for his field, winning in a gallop. Bobbie Kean ran in spots. He made up some ground in the stretch, and finished fourth. "Johnny" was dropped into third place, while Charlie, who played, was second by a head. Belle of Jessamine had no trouble taking the first in a gallop from Bryan, who made up a lot of ground. Spring ran a mile race.

The Virginia and Washington crowd backed Town Topics in the second, but Wood Stockton's gelding was slow to begin, and did not show. Tudor, winning easily, while Hack Flag just beat Kitchan.

Garter Knit, favorite for the steeplechase, had things her own way, leading practically all the way. Allegiance, after being whipped into second place, managed to stay there.

Graziallo, in the fifth, had to take up ten pounds over the weight announced last night, and the clown was made favorite over the Washington horse, with Optician a heavily played second choice.

There was some crowding at the first turn, and Graziallo was knocked back. The clown took the lead at the far turn and galloped home while Graziallo made up a lot of ground and got the place. Optician stopped badly.

Herea had no trouble taking the last, leading nearly all the way.
